

I recommend you rule against the do not call list because I love getting calls from telemarketers and messing with their heads.